

The MMCC Celebrates the '56 Freedom Fighters and Refugees

Sunday, October 23, 2016, 4 - 8:00 PM

following the Hungarian mass which begins at 3 PM

Cistercian Preparatory School Gymnasium

3550 Cistercian Rd. Irving, TX 75039, Building 3660

COMMEMORATION OF THE 1956 HUNGARIAN REVOLUTION'S 60TH ANNIVERSARY

The coat of arms of Hungary is prominently displayed in the center-left of the poster. It features a crown at the top, a shield with a white cross on a red field, and a green base. The shield is flanked by red and white horizontal stripes. The entire emblem is set against a dark, circular background that resembles a globe or a stylized sun.

- Classical music
- Presentation of The Courage for Freedom bilingual book, by MMCC, and introduction of its 16 authors
- Served dinner for seated guests (Hungarian appetizer, Wiener schnitzel, mushroom sauce, parsley potato, cucumber salad, dessert, pálinka, wine, beverages, coffee and water)
- One-hour program performed by The Csárdás Hungarian Dancers of Austin
- Social time, book sale and dedication

Price: $45.00 for adults, $20.00 for children (ages 6 -12), under 6 are free

Reservation deadline: October 10. To secure your reservation, please send your payment to Eva Beluska, evabeluska@hotmail.com, 817-829-2180. no payment will be accepted at the door.

Send payment to: MMCC, 1904 Autry Ct., Arlington, TX 76017

We will have a slideshow during the dinner about the 56-ers. Please send your or your family pictures (pre or post '56) to Eva Beluska prior to October 10. Please indicate the names, approximate date and location of each picture.

Looking forward to seeing you all!

Sponsored by:

the
HUNGARY INITIATIVES
foundation